RE: Edward Banks v. McGlynn, Hays & Co., Inc. et al.
Consolidated Cases Civ. Action Nos.: 19-cv-05727, 21-cv-00679 (JLR) (RWL)

Dear Hon. Rochon:

In accordance with Your Honor's October 7th Directive (Dkt. 106, 372), with Rule 1(A) of Your Honor's Individual Rules, and with the SDNY's Standing Order, 19-MC-00583, and Section 6 of the ECF Rules & Instructions (which were incorporated by reference therein), Plaintiff's counsel respectfully submits this motion to file the unredacted version of this letter and supporting medical record ex parte under seal, as the documents contain counsel's highly sensitive and confidential medical/health information that would be intended for the Court's Eyes Only. The documents request remote appearances by Plaintiff's counsel for medical/health reasons.

Lugosch v. Pyramid Co. of Onondaga County, 435 F.3d 110 (2d Cir. 2006) would also arguably not apply, as counsel's information is plainly irrelevant to the underlying claims and/or defenses asserted in the instant case and it would not otherwise be considered judicial documents/records, so the common law presumption of public access would not attach.
